—Doors and windows low down at Raymond's.
Lamentable Suicide.
Mr. Dag. Izor, a young and highly respected citizen of Chetopa, committed suicide Tuesday morning by shooting himself through the head. Mr. Izor has long been an operator on the Missouri Pacific road, and was at the time working in the Chetopa office. He was a young man of unquestionable character and was universally liked. He was apparently in good spirits up to the hour of the tragedy. No cause assigned.
The following dispatch from Chetopa, dated September 26th, gives a more complete account of the sad affair: This morning, at 8:30, E. D. Izor, who for several weeks has been night operator at the Missouri Pacific depot, shot himself through the head with a large Colt's navy revolver, and died about two hours afterward. He had returned from the depot, eaten his breakfast and shaved himself, and while still in his room committed the terrible deed. The ball passed through the middle of his forehead, entering on one side of the room. Izor has been in low spirits for some time, but why he committed suicide is not known.

The Sunday School Exhibition.
The Sunday School exhibition given by the Methodist Sunday School on last Sabbath was a grand success, and was largely attended, more especially by the little ones. The lesson selected for the occasion was "Ring the Bells of Heaven," a very appropriate one. With Mr. S. S. Stephens as Superintendent, this school works in harmony and perfect order is observed. It has a regular attendance of over a hundred students, and an average attendance of seventy-nine and five-twelfths. We cordially invite the pale-faces of our borders who doubt the rapidity with which the Indian is advancing civilization and education to visit our Sabbath and day schools and see if we do not compare favorably with the so-called civilized people.
Brakeman Killed.
A sad accident occurred at the Grand River bridge last Monday. A brakeman, whose name we did not learn, had been riding on the engine, as the morning was cold, and as the train approached the bridge he started back to set the brakes. As he swung himself from the tender to the front car he was struck by the first timber at the end of the bridge and knocked senseless. He fell through the bridge to the ground near the edge of the water. The engineer was looking forward and did not see him, but the rear brakeman saw him from the caboose. The train was stopped, and they took him to Seneca, where he died. He perhaps never knew what hurt him. In the midst of life we are in death.
Pleasant Social Gathering.
The social last Monday evening at Mr. Goodykoontz's was one of the most enjoyable occasions of the season, everyone being well entertained and having a good time generally. Those present were Mrs. Hallock, Misses Blythe, Miller, Green, McCammon and Beatty, and Messrs. Stretch, Coles, McCammon, Badget and Hollingsworth. All were very social, and playing games were the order of the evening. Everything passed off satisfactorily to all, and Mr. and Mrs. Goodykoontz are to be congratulated on the way in which they entertained their guests.
Loss on Stock.
John A. Foreman, W. C. Chamberlain and J. E. Porter returned from St. Louis Tuesday. They went there in company with A. P. Goodykoontz and others, who went down with stock. There were twenty cars from the Territory in the train. On account of the tunnel disaster spoken of last week they had to lie over at Rolla nearly a week on expenses. The total loss was between three and four thousand dollars. Boys, you have our sympathy, but we suppose the railroad company will share at least a part of the loss. It won't do to pay too high for cattle now.
The Melton Case.
In the case of the Cherokee Nation versus Wyley J. Melton, charged with the murder of Joe Landrum, which was brought up before the special session of the Supreme Court of Delaware district on Monday last, a motion was made by Prosecuting Attorney But Beck to continue the case on the ground of the absence of material witnesses. The motion was sustained and the trial set for the 9th of October. Melton filed bond in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the time set and was released from custody.
—Car-load of furniture now on sale at Raymond's.
—Furniture for the million at Raymond's.

THE MUSKOGEE FAIR.
What Has Been Done at Muskogee During the First Three Days—The Fair a Success.
The net receipts for the first day were $25, with $253 collected for the horses. In the 3-year-old mile race three horses were entered, with the following results: Dick Vann's Bitterly Bred Frank Reed's stallion second and Dick Sutherland's Polly Ross last. In the half-mile race McIntosh's Sitting Bull came out first, Ed Weldon's Sorrel Kit second, Tom Drew's Parley Falley third, Wm. Stephens' Mexican Pony fourth and Tom French's Grey Bob last. The race was for $25, and was hotly contested by the first two horses.
SECOND DAY.
A large crowd passed through the gates on Wednesday, the receipts being far ahead of the previous. Several new articles came in for exhibition, quilts, quilts, etc. A good deal of money changed hands on the mile race. Nip Blackstone's horse came out first, making the mile in 1:50. Tom French's Red Fox second and Sorrel Kit last. In the half-mile race some heavy sums changed hands. Jim Cobb's Sticking Legs came out first, Benga's Black Jim second, and horses belonging to F. Colbert, F. B. McIntosh and H. Rums completing the five that ran.
THIRD DAY.
The attendance on the third day, yesterday, was larger than that of any preceding day, but the largest attendance is expected to-day. In the trotting race yesterday Black Bob was entered by Wm. Stephens, Sorrel Kit by Boyle, and Red Fox by Ed Weldon. The race was won by Sorrel Kit, purse $25. The mile heat and return was won by Bob Blackstone's Comanche, Boyle's Red Fox, Thos. French's Paroles and Cream, and was won by Comanche, purse $100.
The fair association reports finances in good condition, receipts running ahead of expenses. There are some very fine wagons on the grounds, manufactured at Fort Gibson. An address was made in the afternoon yesterday by R. L. Owen, Secretary of the Board of Education of the Cherokee Nation. Also by Pleasant Porter, Creek delegate to Washington, and a few very interesting remarks by Major J. A. Foreman, President of the fair association. All were listened to by a large and attentive audience. Mr. M. H. Hensley, who has a very fine display of fruits from his nursery, thinks he will bring the same varieties here. Mrs. Sarah C. Fields, cousin of our fellow-townsmen, R. H. Fields, was presented with the ladies' saddle for being the best equestrienne yesterday. The Savanna school children will be at the fair to-day, a special car being provided for them.
LADIES' DEPARTMENT.
To the Editor of the Chieftain:
In this department we had a great variety of attractive things, the most exquisite point applique and lace, skillfully wrought embroideries in white and colored silks, patchwork of the most intricate designs, quilts so closely quilted that it would be almost impossible to add another stitch, several lovely patterns of crochet, all the work of the deft fingers of our lady friends. While rivaling this display in skill, if not in elegance, the work brought in by the Otse Indians, robes of thick wool heavily beaded in fantastic patterns and brilliant color bands, sashes and leggings equally as rich; but the most curious, perhaps, was the headress of eagle feathers, all of which are said to have been taken from the live eagle. It is truly a striking monument we have upon our shelves to represent the culinary ability of our ladies—glass jars of translucent jellies, preserves and canned fruits of many kinds, apples, bread and yellow butter, from the mineral kingdom we have a variety of play and a curious ball, some of hardened clay, mingled with glass, within which there is a smaller sphere, which rattles as it is shaken. The queer specimen was dubbed "bag of puzzle" by our visitors in discomfiture from a puzzle of two jumping hawks, made and suspended in an ordinary bottle by a blind man. No one has been able to solve the problem as to how it was done.

The deceased was a loving wife, and leaves a large circle of friends, both among the Indians and white people, to mourn her loss.
